

Evelyn Boyd Granville

second black woman we know of to earn a PhD in mathematics

...this was the most interesting job of my lifetime—to be a member of a group responsible for writing computer programs to track the paths of vehicles in space

Her favorite puzzle: Rabbits and chickens have been placed in a cage. You count 48 feet and 17 heads. How many of each animal are there?