

Star Power

Omarosa Manigault

Intersectionality

- multifaceted aspects of a person—gender, race, class, age, bodies—and how they combine, intersect and overlap to shape an individual's narrative and life experiences, including privilege, oppression and discrimination
- helps us move beyond any binaries for richer more complex narratives as a powerful tool to understand where people are coming from, address inequalities and dismantle power structures
- one can be privileged and oppressed at the same time

Star Power

Orange is the New Black

Star Power

Orange is the New Black

Who do you plan to vote for in the presidential election?

- a) I am not yet 18, so I can't vote or I am at least 18 but do not plan to vote
- b) Donald Trump/Mike Pence (Republican)
- c) Hillary Clinton/Tim Kaine (Democratic)
- d) Gary Johnson/Bill Weld (Libertarian)
- e) write-in candidate, or other response