

Experiences

- 1 What popular culture experiences have been important and why?

Sidney J Cohen in the 1960s

ALLIED THEATRE OWNERS OF NEW YORK STATE, INC.

AFFILIATED WITH ALLIED STATES ASSOCIATION
OF
MOTION PICTURE EXHIBITORS

— Thru Allied Your Voice Will Be Heard —

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
SIDNEY J. COHEN

500 PEARL STREET
BUFFALO, N. Y. 14202
TT 5-5211

"Strength is in unity"

- "We fought many battles on censorship"

Film
DAILY

Oct 21, 1962

N.Y. Allied President Declares He Was Not Invited to Classification Hearings

Buffalo—Declaring opposition to proposals to establish classification of motion pictures in New York State, Sidney J. Cohen, president of the Allied Theatres of New York State told THE FILM DAILY yesterday that he had not been invited to any of the legislative committee hearings on the subject.

The hearings, under the auspices of the Legislative Joint Committee for Study and Dissemination of Offensive and Obscene Material, have been held in New York City and Buffalo, with additional meetings proposed for Rochester, Syracuse and Plattsburg.

SIDNEY J. COHEN

Stephen King's Pet Sematary

- “It hits pretty much every aspect of death—how you deal with it, when you should learn about it, fighting against it, playing God” [Carlie St. George]

Mom and I

Collaboration with Andrew Nestler

- Sunday dinner and The Simpsons as undergrad and grad
- critique and analysis in published articles and our website simpsonsmath.com
- led to many interesting opportunities including this class!

Experiences

- 1 What popular culture experiences have been important to you and why?
- 2 Name something from popular culture that you would recommend for the rest of the class and why?