

Accomplishments and Awards

- ✦ Received Highest Honors in Mathematics from the Hampton Institute at the age of 19
- ✦ Graduated with a Master's in 1971 in Applied Mathematics from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign
- ✦ Graduated with a Ph.D. in Higher Education Administration in Educational Statistics in 1975 from the University of Urbana-Champaign
- ✦ The first US Presidential Award for Excellence in Science, Mathematics and Engineering Mentoring
- ✦ Distinguished Citizen Award from the Boy Scouts of America
- ✦ The Hatikvah Award (the Jewish National Fund)
- ✦ The Educator Achievement Award
- ✦ The Golden Torch Academic Award (National Action Council for Minorities in Engineering)
- ✦ The Educator Achievement Award from the National Science Foundation
- ✦ Consultant to the National Science Foundation
- ✦ Consultant to the National Institutes of Health
- ✦ Consultant to the National Academy of Sciences
- ✦ Consultant to the US Department of Education
- ✦ Member of the American Council on Education

 Developed the Meyerhoff Program to encourage minority students in the mathematical, engineering, and science fields

 President of the University of Maryland at Baltimore County