

Career

In September 1925 Cox accepted a teaching position at West Virginia State College. Cox remained at West Virginia State four years and then accepted a position at Howard University. He served as chairman of the mathematics department at Howard from 1957-1961. Cox remained at Howard University until his retirement in 1965.