"Abstracts of papers", American Mathematical Society Bulletin, Vol 40, pg 216, New York, 1934. This source stated the summarization of her thesis, which was helpful because her thesis was unavailable.

Dickason, Elizabeth. "Remembering Grace Murray Hopper: A Legend in Her Own Time," CHIPS On-line, http://www.norfolk.navy.mil/chips/grace_hopper/file2.htm. This gave a great biography on Hopper.

Dickason, Elizabeth. "Looking Back: Grace Murray Hopper's Younger Years," CHIPS On-line, http://www.norfolk.navy.mil/chips/grace_hopper/young.htm. This source gave a description of Hopper's life when she was younger.

Distinguished Women of Past and Present. "Grace Murray Hopper" <http://www.distinguishedwomen.com/biographies/hopper/html> A description of Hopper's life was given in this source.

"Irreducibility Criteria", This explained Eisenstein's criterion and the tricks about finding irreducibility. It was very helpful in writing this paper! <http://mathpages.co/ho/kath406.htm>
