

Intro to Math

Alice attended the University of Chicago where she studied metric and projective differential geometry. In these areas she would obtain her masters and doctorate.

Alice's thesis was on Two Singularities of Space Curve. We came across a paper, which explains much of her thesis. We have decided to explore some of her ideas mentioned. More specifically we will discuss tangent and normal vectors and follow them up with an explanation on oscillating planes.