

Introduction To Classroom Worksheet

This classroom worksheet is designed to get students acquainted with finding distance using the Taxicab Metric as opposed to the formula used when finding distance in Euclidean geometry. Students should have a general overview of what taxicab geometry is and how distance differs. After this is explained the worksheet should not present a problem to anyone. It is pretty easy to understand and simply gets the student used to finding distance in taxicab geometry.