

Introduction to the Worksheet

The worksheet included in this project has been created for use in classrooms where significant amounts of information about Newton's method has been presented. The student should have an understanding of what Newton's method does and be able to walk through an example in order to find the roots of an equation. Included in this worksheet is a brief overview of the life of Richard Alfred Tapia, as well as some mathematical terms that will be needed to complete the worksheet.