

Gender or Multicultural Issues in a Thematic Context

Her first experience with blatant sexism was in high school with her crush. He claimed it was not fair that she received higher marks than he did, for he needed better grades for his "career." This experience was only momentary though. Mrs. Taylor now claims "It inoculated me against it (sexism)." Unfortunately, she lost touch with reality and started hanging out with the bad crowd. She was known as the "ringleader" of the mischievous children.