

Useful References

Journals:

Black Men and Women in Mathematical Research, by Patricia Clark Kenschaft, Journal of Black Studies, Vol 18 No. 2, December 1987 170-190, p. 170-174. Useful for colleague's comments, familial information, and multicultural aspects of Woodard's life.

Web References:

<http://math.rice.edu/~lanius/frac/koch3.html> Useful in describing the finite area of our Koch Snowflake.

http://www.math.buffalo.edu/mad/PEEPS/Woodard_dudleyw.html Useful for Woodard's educational background, and for listing publications of Woodard.

<http://www.math.upenn.edu/History/bh/text99.html> Useful in tracking Woodard's work.

Articles:

Woodard, D.W. Loci Connected with the Problem of Two Bodies

Woodard, D.W., On two dimensional analysis situs with special reference to the Jordan curve-theorem, Fundamenta Mathematicae 13 (1929), 121-145.

Woodard D.W., The characterization of the closed N-cell, *Trans. Amer. Math.Soc.*42 (1937), no.3, 396-414.