

Getting to Know a Scholar: 2/8-2/14/16

Background: Amanda Copeland is from Countryside, IL where she attended Lyons Township High School and graduated in 2010. She is majoring in Mathematics and her favorite subject is math. She enjoys playing soccer, riding horses, and going hiking. She decided to pursue mathematics because her undergraduate professors were very supportive and encouraging. She chose ASU because she has the opportunity to teach college level classes while completing her master's degree.